APPENDIX

CONFIDENTIAL

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI) SECRET

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

The May 23, 1964, edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become soft in his anti-white feelings and to become more religious.

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York), 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion.

A second confidential source advised on October 20, 1964, that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York, where they were established on March 16,1964. These headquarters are shared with the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) which is also headed by MALCOLM X.

CONFIDENTIAL

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil-rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

Memorandum

TO: W. C. SULLIVAN

DATE: 2-27-65

FROM: F. J. BAUMGARDNER

SUBJECT: NATION OF ISLAM
INTERNAL SECURITY - NOI

The following developments have taken place relating to the murder of Malcolm X Little in New York City on 2-21-65 and the Annual Muslim Convention (AMC) being held at Chicago, Illinois, 2/26-28/65.

The Chicago Office advised that the opening session of the AMC commenced at 2:00 P.M. 2-26-65 [redacted] estimating attendance at 1500 to 1800 persons, despite the Chicago newspaper estimates of 6,000. Elijah Muhammad, leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI) spoke as did the brothers of Malcolm X Little. All denounced Little as a hypocrite and denied NOI connection with the murder. Wallace Muhammad, son of Elijah Muhammad, also spoke and asked to be reaccepted into the NOI. This was done. It is noted that Wallace Muhammad has, in the past, publicly denounced his father as a fraud and defected from the NOI. He had considered joining forces with Little and in this regard met with Little at Chicago, Illinois, just prior to 2-21-65. [redacted]

A minor incident occurred at the AMC when one [redacted] was seized at the meeting since he was suspected of being associated with groups opposing the NOI. The files of the Bureau, New York, and Chicago Offices contain no information identifiable with [redacted] He has, in the past, been arrested frequently on charges of loitering. There is no indication that he is connected with any Muslim group.

Several other rumors of possible disturbances have been furnished by the [redacted] but no pertinent information has been developed indicating possible disturbances. [redacted] a newspaper reporter who had written an expose of the NOI several years ago, was recognized in attendance at the AMC, was denounced as a spy and escorted from the convention.

Information has been received from our Buffalo Office indicating possible disturbances. Buffalo reports that the [redacted] received a call from one [redacted] not further identified, stating that her brother, whose name was not given, was going to blow up the NOI meeting hall at Rochester. When Police searched the area at which dynamite had been hidden by [redacted] they discovered five sticks of dynamite hidden in an abandoned car. The Police are conducting a surveillance of the NOI Temple at Rochester in order to prevent any possible violence. Our Buffalo Office also advised that the General Explosives Sales, Incorporated, Rochester, New York, had received two anonymous calls instructing that 20 sticks of dynamite be delivered to a designated location or the company representative "would not see the sun rise." Appropriate law enforcement agencies and Secret Service have been notified.

Buffalo has been instructed to determine all circumstances regarding each of the above incidents [redacted] and furnish the Bureau actual involvement of individuals involved in NOI or Black Nationalist-type organizations.

Above information being furnished to the Department and interested intelligence agencies, including Secret Service.

NATION OF ISLAM

The Nation of Islam (NOI) is referred to in the appendix section of this communication.

67D On February 22, 1965, [redacted] advised that Elijah Muhammad had held a press conference that date in connection with the assassination of Malcolm Little.

Malcolm Little is described in the appendix section of this communication under the characterizations of Muslim Mosque, Inc., and the Organization of Afro-American Unity.

In response to questions asked at this conference Elijah Muhammad stated he was not afraid his life was in danger as he has done nothing to make him afraid. He said the Black Muslims are not responsible for Malcolm's death as it is against Muslim teachings. He added that the death of Malcolm would have no ramification on the Muslim movement as there were not many people with Malcolm. He said the main disagreement between Malcolm and himself was over arms, and that NOI members are forbidden to carry arms while Malcolm favored the carrying of arms and was, therefore, the victim of what he preached.

Muhammad also stated he was deeply shocked over Malcolm's violent death and said nothing separated Malcolm from the NOI but the issue of arms.

ENCLOSURE

Muhammad stated he was sorry Malcolm met such a death because of his own teachings. He added that he was not concerned about his own life as the NOI was not involved in Malcolm's death at the hands of violent assassins. He added the NOI was conducting an investigation of its own followers in this matter.

The February 22 and 23 editions of the following Chicago daily newspapers contained items which in substance contained the same information as set forth above:

"Chicago American"
"Chicago Sun-Times"
"Chicago Tribune"
"Chicago Daily News"

Extensive press coverage in Chicago was given by the above newspapers regarding the assassination of Malcolm Little and matters pertaining thereto regarding the NOI.

1. APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, Aka. Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

1. APPENDIX

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI)

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

The May 23, 1964, edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become soft in his anti-white feelings and to become more religious.

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York); 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion.

A second confidential source advised on October 20, 1964, that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York, where they were established on March 16, 1964. These headquarters are shared with the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) which is also headed by MALCOLM X.

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our"brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the heqdquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

NATION OF ISLAM

The Nation of Islam (NOI) is described in the latter pages of this communication.

On February 22 and 23, 1965, Wesley South, Moderator of the question-answer program "Hot Line: over Chicago radio station WVON, interviewed Elijah Muhammad. This program, which is on the air 11:00 p.m. to midnight, was monitered by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

In response to questions regarding the assassination of Malcolm K. Little and the NOI, Muhammad stated as follows:

> Malcolm Little is described in the appendix pages of this memorandum under the characterizations of Muslim Mosque, Incorporated and Organization of Afro-American Unity.

The murder of Malcolm X was a shock and surprise to us. We are investigating the charge all over the country to see if the NOI is responsible and to see if we can come up with the man's name in our records, but as of now we have no record. I have preached for thirty-four years we are against this type of thing. Malcolm left and began teaching hate and the arming of his members. We in the NOI are against this position as it would be suicide to take up arms against this country. Allah teaches us not to carry guns and we do not carry any. We have no guns, bombs or artillery pieces to field. The Koran teaches that if one opposes the Messenger and repents he is forgiving, but if he does not repent he is subject to divine chastisement such as death or hell fire.

ENCLOSURE

Muhammad stated he did not know the reason why Malcolm was killed nor who killed him. Muhammad has not asked police protection, but appreciates it, adding he was a taxpayer.

Muhammad stated he has heard assassins are coming for him but that he was not frightened, as he was on Allah's mission and was not running.

Muhammad stated he had two hundred thousand to three hundred thousand members all over the world. He said some people in order to keep their racial pride teachhate. Muhammad doesn't teach violence except to fight back if attacked. The NOI is never the aggressor. Muhammad does not teach hate, only the truth and the white men are a wicked, devil race. A Muslim is one who has submitted himself to Islam.

Muhammad stated he would not back any man who used violence and in the event it subsequently might be discovered a member of the NOI killed Malcolm, added he would not back any man who used violence as the Koran only teaches us to kill on the order of Allah. This would be handled in the same way that God advised Moses to lead and help his people as set forth in the Bible.

On February 23, 1965, Elijah Muhammad in response to questions submitted by individuals who called in to radio station WVON advised as follows:

That when Malcom X remarked that the "Chickens had come home to roost" in regards to the assassination of President Kennedy he meant that this individual had come to his end. The son who had denounced him had now returned and confessed and did not have knowledge of the truth when this occurred. Now he has true knowledge.

b7D [redacted] that Wallace Mohammed, son of Elijah Muhammad, was a former minister in the NOI, but deviated from the NOI in late May, 1964, and was dismissed therefrom by Muhammad.

The February 25, 1965, issue of "Chicago's American", a Chicago, Illinois daily newspaper, contained an item on page 1, that Wallace Mohammed would be permitted by his father to rejoin the NOI.

LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the heqdquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

NATION OF ISLAM

The Nation of Islam (NOI) is described in the appendix pages of this communication.

b7D On February 21, 1965, [redacted] had learned that one of Elijah Muhammad's followers in New York City had been in contact with an NOI Lieutenant in Chicago and had stated that six of Malcolm X's followers had boarded a plane for Chicago to take the Messenger's (Elijah Muhammad) life.

[redacted] further advised that he had learned b7D that Elijah Muhammad on being informed that six of Malcolm X's followers were en route to Chicago to take his life stated that as he is here in Chicago he does not know what goes on in New York until he is told. [redacted] Muhammad also indicated that Malcolm was killed at one of his (Malcolm's) meetings and not an NOI meeting and that Malcolm's own gang got him. This was in response to a question by [redacted] b7C of the Chicago weekly newspaper, "The Crusader". b7D [redacted] also advised that Muhammad stated he had nothing to say concerning this matter.

Malcolm K. Little is described in the appendix section of this communication under characterizations of Muslim Mosque, Inc., and the Organization of Afro-American Unity.

ENCLOSURE

[redacted] that Elijah Muhammad, Jr., was a son of Elijah Muhammad and a member of the NOI at Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2 in Chicago. b7D

[redacted] further advised on February 21, 1965, that Elijah Muhammad had been advised by one of his followers in Phoenix, Arizona, that the Phoenix Police Department desired to place a guard over Muhammad when he returned to that city. The source advised that Muhammad reportedly issued instructions to inform the Phoenix Police Department that he appreciated their consideration, but that things would be all right, adding that the Chicago Police Department was guarding his home in Chicago at that time because of a threat put out in New York. [redacted] Muhammad indicated he had heard a threat that a carload of "Little fellows" were on their way to Chicago, but that he was not afraid of them. Muhammad also indicated that "they" killed their own man in their own place and that they were crazy as the NOI had nothing to do with that. b7D

On February 21, 1965, at 10:30 PM, [redacted] advised that there was a fire in the apartment of Cassius Clay, 7036 South Cregier, and that Clay's apartment had been gutted and possibly had some connection with Malcolm's assassination. Subsequently, at 12:10 AM on February 22, 1965, [redacted] advised that the fire in Clay's apartment started in the apartment below that occupied by Clay and was ignited unintentionally by the occupant, [redacted] b7D b7C

1. APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, Aka. Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

1. APPENDIX

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI)

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

The May 23, 1964, edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become soft in his anti-white feelings and to become more religious.

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York), 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion.

A second confidential source advised on October 20, 1964, that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York, where they were established on March 16, 1964. These headquarters are shared with the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) which is also headed by MALCOLM X.

1. APPENDIX

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our"brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the heqdquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

[redacted] advised that there were no incidents during the removal of the body from the funeral home to the church; that approximately 1000 persons were in the church itself and that at 9:30 AM there were approximately 500 persons outside the church. [redacted] further advised that a detail of the NYCPD was in evidence in the area of the church during the entire funeral.

At 9:30 AM, the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) Television Station, WNBC, New York City, broadcasted a one hour television program covering the services. The television coverage began with scenic scanning photographs of the area surrounding the Faith Temple Church of God at Amsterdam Avenue and West 147th Street, New York City. Included was various views of the funeral procession as it entered the church. At 9:50 AM the television cameras were focused on the podium within the church.

Ossie Davis, Negro Playwright and Actor, acted as Master of Ceremonies. Davis made mention of the cooperation rendered the family of the late Malcolm X and those responsible for planning his funeral by the various news media, civic leaders, New York City officials and the NYCPD. He then read excerpts from various telegrams, letters and messages of condolence received by the widow of Malcolm X. Among such messages of condolence as mentioned by Ossie Davis were messages from the Los Angeles Youth Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NACCP) and Whitney M. Young, Jr., Executive Director of the National Urban League.

Among those present at the Faith Temple Church of God were James Farmer, National Director, of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Bayard Rustin, Leader of the 1963 March on Washington, Dick Gregory, Negro comedian and John Lewis, Director, of the National Urban League.

Malcolm K. Little

Ossie Davis was assisted in reading the messages of condolence by his wife, the Actress Ruby Dee. Ruby Davis

The church services also included eulogies by a male individual who was only identified as a representative of the Islamic Center of Geneva and the United States. This male Negro mentioned that Malcolm X made a trip to the Middle East and Africa in 1964 and that thereafter his views changed and that he no longer advocated racism or violence but believed in integration. This individual characterized Malcolm X as a martyr and stated that it is "better to die on the battlefield than in bed" and that "those who die in battle are not dead."

The concluding speaker was an individual only identified as a leader of the Muslim Students in the United States and Canada. This individual characterized Malcolm X as a Negro leader, who had given his life for the advancement of the Negro cause throughout the world.

b7D [redacted] advised that between 10:45 AM and 11:10 AM on 2/27/65, the funeral services at the Faith Temple Church of God, New York City were concluded without incident and that the funeral procession proceeded through Harlem in an orderly fashion to the Major Deagon Expressway and traveled north from New York City under NYCPD escort to the City line at the beginning of the Thomas E. Dewey Expressway, Westchester County, New York, where the procession was taken over by the New York State Police Department en route to Ferncliff Cemetery, Hartsdale, New York.

b7D [redacted] advised that the funeral procession started with approximately fifteen cars and that the procession itself became entwined with New York City traffic in Harlem and on the expressway.

b7D [redacted] advised on February 27, 1965 that the funeral procession under convoy of the New York State Police entered the grounds of the Ferncliff Cemetery, Hartsdale, New York, Town of Greenburgh, Westchester County, New York, at 11:35 AM on February 27, 1965 with approximately fifty two automobiles parked behind the hearse; that approximately 200 passengers from these automobiles joined another 200 persons who had been waiting at the scene for the funeral procession to arrive.

b7D [redacted] advised that the funeral service at the grave was concluded at approximately 12:45 PM by which time the group which appeared to be members of the immediate funeral procession itself had left the cemetery. [redacted] advised that there were no disturbances or incidents in the cemetery or at the grave site itself; that the funeral was carried on in an orderly fashion but that shortly before the end of the ceremony itself a woman believed to be [redacted] Boston, Massachusetts, [redacted] in a slight emotional outburst was heard to say that she would be "willing to die for the cause". (Nee Little) b7D [redacted] that two individuals known to him only as former members of a personal bodyguard or close associates of Malcolm X, also in an emotional outburst indicated that the death of Malcolm X would eventually be avenged.

b7D [redacted] advised on February 27, 1965 that Harlem Rent Strike Leader Jesse Gray advocated that retail merchants on 125th Street in Harlem close their stores during the Malcolm X funeral hours on February 27, 1965 under the threat of a picket line and boycott. [redacted] further advised that [redacted] noted that the Jesse Gray picket line included no more than thirty persons; that the picket line which appeared at 125th Street, New York City, was completely inaffective and that reports indicate that the retail merchants in the area paid no attention to it and that business was conducted without incident.

LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

MALCOLM X approached the podium at approximately 3:00 p.m. immediately after MALCOLM greeted the audience, a disturbance occurred in the left aisle facing the stage. At the same time two men occupying seats on the left side of the middle aisle near the front moved into a crouched position and fired several shots at MALCOLM. From this point on [redacted] there was mass confusion. Almost everyone dove to the floor to escape the bullets being fired. Women and children were screaming.

INSTANT DATE THAT DESPITE STATEMENTS IN NEWSPAPERS, THE [redacted] HAVE NO NEW SUSPECTS AT THE PRESENT TIME IN CONNECTION WITH THE DEATH OF MALCOLM X, AND THAT BECAUSE OF THE FUNERAL OF MALCOLM INSTANT DATE DID NOT PLAN ANY INTERVIEWS TODAY BECAUSE PRACTICALLY ALL AVAILABLE PERSONNEL WERE UTILIZED TO COVER THE FUNERAL TO COVER ANY EMERGENCIES WHICH MIGHT HAVE ARISEN. HE FURTHER ADVISED THAT THE [redacted] AVE NO INFORMATION TO INDICATE THAT EITHER [redacted] OR THOMAS ARTHUR JOHNSON, WHO WERE ARRESTED WITH SUSPECT NORMAN THREE X BUTLER JANUARY SEVEN LAST FOR SHOOTING BENJAMIN BROWN IN THE BRONX, WERE IN THE VICINITY OF THE AUDUBON BALLROOM AROUND THE TIME MALCOLM ~~WAS SHOT~~.

[redacted] ADVISED THAT PHOTOS OF [redacted] AND JOHNSON HAVE BEEN SHOWN TO [redacted] WITNESSES AND NONE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO IDENTIFY THESE TWO INDIVIDUALS AS BEING OBSERVED AT THE BALLROOM ON THE DATE OF THE SHOOTING. [redacted] ADVISED THAT SUSPECT BUTLER WAS IDENTIFIED BY SOME OF THE WITNESSES INTERVIEWED BY [redacted] AS HAVING BEEN IN THE BALLROOM AROUND THE TIME OF THE SHOOTING AND HIS PHOTO WAS IDENTIFIED AS BEING ONE OF THE ASSASSINS BY WITNESSES WHO OBSERVED THE SHOOTING.

IN VIEW OF THE FACT [redacted] AND JOHNSON HAVE NOT BEEN KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN ANYWHERE IN THE VICINITY OF THE BALLROOM AT THE TIME OF THE SHOOTING, [redacted] HAVE NOT QUESTIONED THEM.

[redacted] ADVISED THAT TO FACILITATE THE INVESTIGATION THE SQUAD HANDLING THE MURDER OF MALCOLM IS BEING MOVED FROM [redacted] TO THE [redacted] WHICH IS CLOSER TO THE HARLEM AREA.

SINCE THE TWO KNOWN SUSPECTS ARRESTED FOR THE MURDER OF MALCOLM RESIDE IN DIFFERENT AREAS, THERE IS A POSSIBILITY

AT THE OTHER INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED MAY COME FROM DIFFERENT AREAS. FOR THIS REASON, IT IS REQUESTED THAT CHICAGO, DETROIT, AND PHILADELPHIA FORWARD TO NEW YORK PHOTOS OF ANY NOI MEMBERS WHO HAVE BEEN ENGAGED IN ACTS OF VIOLENCE, PARTICULARLY STRONG-ARM MEN FOR THE NOI. IT IS FURTHER REQUESTED THAT DESCRIPTIONS ACCOMPANY THESE PHOTOS AND IT IS CONTEMPLATED THAT THESE PHOTOS WILL BE TURNED OVER TO [redacted] WITH THE DESCRIPTIONS, ON 67D BUREAU APPROVAL, TO SEE IF THE WITNESSES CAN IDENTIFY ANY SUCH INDIVIDUALS AS SUSPECTS IN THIS CASE.

THE NEWARK OFFICE HAS PREVIOUSLY BEEN REQUESTED TO FORWARD PHOTOS AND DESCRIPTIONS OF INDIVIDUALS ARRESTED IN NEW JERSEY WITH SUSPECT TALMADGE HAYER.

records at Tuskegee, Alabama.

[redacted] Tuskegee Institute, confirmed the appearance of MALCOLM X for a speaking engagement at Logan Hall, Tuskegee Institute, Alabama, on the night of February 3, 1965, under the sponsorship of the Institute Council Lecture Series. He stated that numerous nationally known persons, some controversial, have been invited to make similar appearances and that such invitations do not indicate approval of their philosophies by the faculty of Tuskegee Institute or by the groups extending the invitations. It has been customary for representatives of Tuskegee Institute to meet the visiting speakers upon their arrival and to afford transportation and housing during their stay at Tuskegee Institute. [redacted] knowledge, there is no one at Tuskegee Institute who is affiliated with Muslim Mosque, Inc. He could furnish no information as to the identities of these specific persons who afforded MALCOLM X transportation and housing during his short visit to Tuskegee Institute.

SUBJECT: MALCOLM X
INFORMATION CONCERNING

The "New York Journal-American" issue of 2-24-65 carries a story concerning the murder of Malcolm X under the headline, "G-Men in Harlem--The Plot Deepens." The story states that, "Negro FBI Agents were working under cover in Harlem today in an investigation reportedly aimed at ferreting out possible international political motives behind the assassination of Malcolm X." Further on in the story it is stated, "The Federal Bureau of Investigation confirmed that there are Negro FBI agents in Harlem, but dodged saying anything specific about their assignments." The Director inquired, "What about this?"

Assistant Director Malone of the New York Office advises that neither he nor any of the men in the New York Office confirmed the FBI has Special Agents working in Harlem. Mr. Malone said all inquiries from whatever source had been answered with a "no comment" in connection with this matter.

No one in my office, in answer to inquiries, confirmed to anyone that Negro Agents are working in Harlem.

OBSERVATION:

It is a well known fact among news media people that the FBI has Negro Agents working in large Negro communities. In fact, we publicize this repeatedly. An example of such highlighting the work of our Negro Agents is the attached reprint from the September, 1962, issue of "Ebony" wherein on Page 3 this point is specifically made. Reporters Flynn and Pearl, who work under Guy Richards at the "Journal-American" are known for their flamboyancy and speculative stories.

The following is submitted for information regarding the funeral of Malcolm X Little at New York, 2/27/65. The New York Office was in frequent telephonic contact with the Bureau throughout the church service and burial. The [redacted] estimated that 1,000 people attended the church service and that the number outside the church who could not be admitted was estimated to be between one and two thousand. Local television stations in New York gave coverage to the funeral. The service began at 9:30 a.m., 2/27/65 at the Faith Temple Church of God, corner of Amsterdam Avenue and West 147th Street, in the Harlem section of New York City, after the body had been moved from the Unity Funeral Home, Eighth Avenue and 126th Street, New York City. The eulogy at the church was read by Ossie Davis and his wife, Ruby Dee, who make up a well-known Negro husband and wife theatrical team. Numerous telegrams and letters from Civil Rights leaders were read during the ceremony.

Armand Osmond (phonetic) also participated in the eulogy. He was described as being from the Islamic Center of Geneva and the U.S. Another participant in the eulogy whose name is not as yet known was described as being a representative of the Moslem Students of U.S. and Canada. Among those in attendance at the service at the church were as follows: James Farmer of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE); Bayard Rustin, Deputy Director of "March on Washington, August, 1963"; Dick Gregory, a well-known Negro comedian; and John Lewis, leader of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. Various representatives of the National Urban League whose identities are not as yet known were allegedly present.

The church service ended at 11:10 a.m., 2/27/65, and the funeral procession proceeded to Ferncliff Cemetery at Hartsdale, Westchester County, New York. NYCPD members escorted the funeral entourage to the New York City line at Yonkers, Westchester County, New York, where New York State Police took over the escort to the cemetery. At the cemetery, officers of the Greenburg, New York, Police Department (which covers the area of Hartsdale, New York) took over at the cemetery site.

Memorandum to W. C. Sullivan
Re: NATION OF ISLAM

Fifteen cars made up the entourage from the church to the cemetery, but after arrival of the procession at the cemetery numerous other cars arrived and parked behind the hearse. These cars totaled 52 in number and it was estimated [redacted] of the [redacted] that there was a total of 400 people at the service at the grave site. He advised that although 15 cars proceeded from New York City to the cemetery, the other cars apparently had traveled on their own and not in the funeral procession from the church directly to the cemetery where they joined the other cars. The funeral service at the grave site was over at 12:45 p.m. After Malcolm X was buried and the funeral service had ended, independent small group eulogies and prayers were offered and flowers were dropped on the grave by numerous individuals.

[redacted] members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) participated in the funeral as observers. The SWP, which has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450, has supported Little in the past through Little's appearance at SWP Forums.

No incidents occurred throughout the funeral church service or at the cemetery. [redacted] the sister of Malcolm X made an emotional statement at the grave to the effec that "I am ready to die for the cause." Another emotional statement by someone else in the crowd was heard to the effect that "his death must be avenged."

[redacted] advised that the attempted boycott of Harlem area, New York stores organized by Jesse Gray, Director of the Community Council on Housing and the organizer of the Harlem Rent Strike in New York City, was a complete failure. Gray had attempted to have store owners close their stores for a day and a half during church services out of deference to Malcolm X.

APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam," (NOI) and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the NOI; Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam (Cont.)

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised Muhammad had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

FRUIT OF ISLAM

On May 8, 1964, a source advised that the Fruit of Islam (FOI) is a group within the Nation of Islam (NOI) composed of male members of the NOI. The purpose of the FOI is to protect officials and property of the NOI, assure compliance of members with NOI teachings and to prepare for the "War of Armageddon." Members of the FOI are required to participate in military drill and are afforded the opportunity to engage in judo training. The FOI is governed by a military system wherein the members are controlled by general orders similar to those issued by regular military organizations.

The July 12, 1956 edition of the "Pittsburgh Courier," New York edition, a weekly Negro newspaper published at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, contains an article reflecting that Temple No. 14 of the Muslim Cult of Islam was located at Hartford, Connecticut.

A source advised on May 19, 1961, that Muhammad's Temple of Islam, Hartford, Connecticut, Temple No. 14, also known as the Muslim Cult of Islam and Nation of Islam, is affiliated with the Headquarters of the Nation of Islam, Chicago, Illinois.

MOSQUE #7, NEW YORK CITY

On May 3, 1963, a source advised that the Nation of Islam (NOI) affiliate in New York City is known as Mosque #7, also known as Temple #7, and is located at 102 West 116th Street, New York City. Mosque #7 is a part of the NOI headed by ELIJAH MUHAMMAD, with headquarters in Chicago, Illinois. Mosque #7 follows the policies and programs as set forth by ELIJAH MUHAMMAD.

The date Mosque #7 originated in New York City is not known.

However, in connection with the origin of Mosque #7, it should be noted that in 1953, a second source advised that there was a temple of the NOI (known to source then as the Muslim Cult of Islam) in New York City located at 135th Street and Seventh Avenue, as far back as 1947.

On March 9, 1955, a source advised that the Nation of Islam (NOI) had, at that time, just opened a Temple in Springfield, Massachusetts.

On May 11, 1964, a second source advised that NOI Temple No. 13 is located on the corner of Oak and Tyler Streets, Springfield, Massachusetts. The membership refer to Temple No. 13 as either Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 13 or Muhammad's Mosque No. 13. This source stated that Temple No. 13 is a part of the national organization which has its headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

SAC Marlin Johnson of the Chicago Office called at 5:45 p.m., this date. He said they had received information [redacted] that three men had arrived in town [redacted] with the alleged purpose of killing Elijah Muhammad, the head of the NOI. [redacted] Johnson said the information immediately was passed on to local authorities and the police are presently attempting to locate and identify the three individuals to interview them. Johnson said if their identities were determined, he will immediately furnish the information to New York to verify their backgrounds and their reported connections with Malcolm X Little's followers. Johnson also said he was going to call the New York Office now and furnish them this information to see if New York could shed any further light concerning the three individuals [redacted] He was told to follow this closely and keep us promptly advised of pertinent developments.

Johnson noted that the "Chicago Daily News" of this date contained a headline "New Yorker seized at Muslim Meeting" which related to the police arrest of an individual who attempted to enter the Chicago coliseum today to attend the Muslim convention. Johnson pointed out that this was typical newspaper distortion designed to sell newspapers because the facts are that the individual seized is a Negro bum [redacted] who was arrested by the police on a loitering charge. The police stopped him as he was about to enter the coliseum because of his decrepit appearance. He had a shopping bag in his possession with an empty cup and an old coffee can inside. There is absolutely no indication he is tied in in any way with Malcolm Little's group or intended in any way to instigate violence at the scene.

Johnson said the convention presently is going on with approximately 1800 people in the coliseum. He said that Elijah Muhammad had arrived and was speaking to the audience and that as of 5:45 p.m., there had been no unusual incidents at the scene.

Black Muslim Parley Opens With Attack on Malcolm X

By CLARENCE HUNTER

CHICAGO — Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad opened a three-day convention of his followers here yesterday without getting shot or harmed.

But on the first day of the convention, Malcolm X, Muhammad's former chief spokesman, was discredited by Muhammad and two of his natural children.

Muhammad's son received the sect's forgiveness for having strayed from his father's teachings.

And a New York television reporter being rushed from the meeting hall because he once wrote a series of articles "exposing" the Muslim organization after he masqueraded as a member.

Muhammad and Cassius Clay, heavyweight boxing champion, (whose Muslim name is Muhammad Ali) has been rumored marked for death this weekend to avenge the assassination of Malcolm X in a New York ballroom six days ago.

Harlem Funeral Today

Malcolm left the Black Muslim movement and formed his own black nationalist group last March. His funeral was to be held in Harlem today.

Clay made light of the assassination rumor. "I am supposed to be a target for assassination," he said in mocking tones.

"It makes me mad to sit home and read in the papers about six men taking different directions out of New York City to get me and they can't even get here."

Malcolm X's defection and violent death clearly dominated the meeting yesterday. Muhammad mentioned him at least six times during a rambling speech which lasted an hour and 35 minutes.

Malcolm preached bloodbath and was the first one to bathe in it," Muhammad declared. "If God had wanted to save Malcolm, He would have save him."

Denies Murder Order

The Muslim leader attacked Malcolm for "going everywhere to slander me." He said Malcolm "spent his money and other peoples' money to make enemies for me."

"I didn't tell my followers to go out and kill Malcolm," Muhammad told the estimated 2,000 persons who attended the 3½-hour meeting.

He said that "If Malcolm had died a natural death as my follower we would have given him one of the most glorious burials. . . We would have stood by his body and prayed over it with tears in our eyes." But, he added, "we can't stand beside the grave of a hypocrite."

"We could take care of her children. I've her a home, but [illegible] said nothing ... except that Muhammad should be killed for his (Malcolm's) death," the Black Muslim leader said.

Warns Foes of Doom

Apparently addressing his alleged would-be assassins, Muhammad said:

"If you think you would be happy to destroy the worship houses of Elijah Muhammad, I must think that you are seeking your own doom. By wishing to snuff out the life of Muhammad, you are inviting your own doom."

Pointing to himself, he told his screaming followers:

"You have a very, very valuable piece of property in your midst—and you better try to keep it in your midst."

Muhammad warned that his followers would fight if attacked, because they must protect themselves against aggression.

"If I am cut down, you all are going to be cut down," he said, "so just let me alone."

Spreading into a battery of grotesque connected with 16 television cameras, Muhammad [illegible] an apparent "special message to white people—said [illegible] of Islam will always [illegible] Malcolm but he warned the [illegible] government of America (that) if you try to get hypocrites in [illegible] of us, we shall protect ourselves.

Brothers Spare Malcolm

Malcolm's two brothers, Philbert X and Wilfred X, castigated him for straying from the Black Muslim faith.

"I knew he was traveling on a very reckless course," Philbert said. "When he was living, I tried to help him stay living. Now that he's dead, there's nothing I can do."

Said Wilfred: "My brother Malcolm is dead, and there is nothing we can do to bring him back. We can't get confused and argue among ourselves and forget the ones who caused us to be in this condition in the first place. Malcolm chose to go off on a reckless path, and the recklessness of his choice probably brought about his early death."

The public confession of error was made by Wallace Poole, son of Muhammad, who reportedly had told Malcolm X about instances of immorality within his father's kingdom.

"I want to make a confession of guilt for having made public a dispute which I should have taken up privately with my father," Poole told a stunned audience. "I judged my father when I should have let God do it. I regret my mistake."

Son and Father Embrace

After his confession, he and his father embraced each other behind the speaker's lectern. Later Muhammad told the audience:

"I am thankful to see him be bold enough to come before you and ask your forgiveness for the foolish mistake he made. I told him I could not accept him until you accepted him."

The only tense moment of the afternoon occurred when minister Louis X of Boston, in a display of fiery oratory reminiscent of Malcolm X, criticized Ben Holman, a former Chicago newspaper and television reporter, for having written a newspaper expose of the Black Muslims.

He shouted: "Put the fear of God in [illegible] the world and him ..." And he scolded Holman for allowing "the white man to put him up to joining the Muslims."

His outburst against Holman, a Negro who was beaten by the Muslims in Harlem, caused the Fruit of Islam guards who lined the aisles of the auditorium to yell: "Where is he?" as they rushed toward where Louis X gesticulated. Fellow newsmen surrounded Holman at about the same time as Elijah Muhammad Jr. and several other Muslim guards rushed from the stage area to push back their menacing companions.

Shouts to Kill Heard

"Go back, brothers," Muhammad Jr. ordered as he and his group formed a circle around Holman and escorted him from the building amid cries of "Uncle Tom" and "Kill him!"

Extraordinary security measures taken at the convention apparently caused Muhammad to remark that he was "very sorry that this meeting was not permitted in love and the friendly way that we desire."

Muhammad, a slight 67-year-old man, was shielded by at least 100 well-dressed, unsmiling, husky members of the Fruit of Islam who occupied the first row of seats on the stage and encircled the raised platform.

Each time his speech was interrupted by bursts of applause and cheers, the stage guards snapped to attention, apparently to shield their leader from any gunfire that might be attempted during the vocal outbursts.

Chicago police stationed more than 50 men in the area of the Coliseum to direct traffic and check suspicious cars and individuals.

Some policemen were on the roofs of nearby buildings with binoculars. Marked and unmarked police cars cruised the area.

Muhammad Under Guard

The Muslims would not admit policemen to the building because they would not surren-

...ther their weapons. Muslim guards milled all the balcony but allowed unarmed Chicago firemen to help them watch the audience from that vantage point.

Muhammad was accompanied by Muslim guards in much the same manner as the Secret Service protects the president of the United States.

He came from his South Side home in a limousine which was sixth in the line in a 14-car convoy. Led by two police cars, the next three autos carried Fruit of Islam guards. Three of Muhammad's most trusted followers rode with him in his car, which was followed by six more carloads of bodyguards and two police vehicles.

Police followed the progress of the caravan by walkie-talkie radio, and when it reached the auditorium, Muhammad's car screeched through a drive-in door which led to the rear of the stage inside the building so he could reach the platform with no unnecessary exposure.

As early as three hours before the convention call to order, cars containing Muslim guards were parked on side streets in the vicinity of the Coliseum so a careful watch could be maintained of all pedestrians in the area. One man was arrested after he tried to enter by one of the building's exit doors, and the police bomb squad searched the auditorium before anyone was admitted.

Clay arrived with an entourage of five grim guards who ordered questioning newsmen out of his way as he strolled from a parking lot across the street from the Coliseum.

Every Entrant Searched

Every person was searched before being allowed to enter the 7,500-seat auditorium, which has been the scene of three presidential conventions. Men, women and newsmen were admitted through separate entrances. Guards on the doors advised repeatedly: "Take everything from your pockets and put it in your hat. . . . Stay calm and patient."

Before going onto the main floor of the auditorium, visitors and Muslims were searched and relieved of any sharp objects, cigarette lighters and matches. Even the soles of shoes were fingered by the guards as they searched all possible places where weapons could be concealed.

Today's business will be devoted to a bazaar and two boxing exhibitions by Clay and his brother Rudolph, also a Black Muslim — who shouted the loudest cheers during Muhammad's speech.

When Muhammad finished speaking, Clay, who stood with the elite guard on the stage during the entire afternoon, led the audience in the Muslim chant: "All praise to Allah for the Honorable Elijah Muhammad."

Muhammad closes the convention tomorrow afternoon with a speech on "Universal War."

Police Accuse Muslim In Malcolm X Killing

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

By Arthur [illegible]

NEW YORK, Feb. 26 (AP) The first direct police linkup of the Black Muslims to the assassination of Malcolm X came today, with the arrest of a husky Negro "enforcer" for the militant anti-white sect. Held without bail on a homicide charge, he was the second man accused in the slaying.

Since the 39-year-old Malcolm was shot down at a black supremacy rally last Sunday, police have worked on the theory that his bitter 1963 break with Elijah Muhammad's Chicago-based Black Muslims lay behind the slaying. Muhammad has denied any complicity by his group.

Thirty-five hours after the assassination, the Black Muslim's Harlem Mosque 7 was wrecked by an explosion and fire, in apparent revenge for Malcolm's killing.

By [illegible] it was not until early today that police charged a direct role in the assassination to a known Muslim. They arrested Norman 3X Butler, 26, a practitioner of the deadly art of karate, a form of unarmed combat. He reportedly is a member of Muhammad's elite guard of disciplinary enforcers.

[Many Black Muslims use the surname X to replace their family names, which, they argue, in most cases originally were the names of the white families who held their ancestors in slavery. To avoid confusion among Muslims with the same first names, they add numbers to the X. Police, however, list them by their legal names.]

Norman 3X was free on bond on a charge of taking a shot last month at another defector from the Black Muslim ranks. The victim escaped with his life, however.

Norman 3X was charged with "acting in concert" in Malcolm's slaying with Talmadge Hayer, 22, who was arrested immediately after the assassination and also accused of homicide. Shot by a Malcolm bodyguard, Hayer since has been held in Bellevue Hospital. He has refused to say whether he is a Black Muslim.

Norman 3X offered no resistance to his arrest at his home. He was held without bail and given time to obtain a lawyer.

As Harlem prepared for Saturday's funeral for Malcolm X, his body lay on display at the Unity Funeral Home at Eighth Avenue and 128th Street. Thousands have visited the bier.

ENCLOSURE

Maximum police security was planned for the 5:30 p.m. funeral, to be held at the Faith Temple Church of God in Christ at Amsterdam Avenue and 147th Street.

An effort by some to force the closing of all business establishments along Harlem's main crosstown thoroughfare, 125th Street, apparently collapsed. Boycotts had been threatened against storekeepers who did not cooperate, but only two stores closed today.

In Washington, Carl Rowan, director of the United States Information Agency, and himself a Negro, said some African newspapers were falsely portraying Malcolm X as a martyred integrationist hero despite zealous efforts by the USIA.

Rowan said Malcolm X was "an ex-convict, ex-dope peddler, who became a racial fanatic." He made the remarks yesterday before the Foreign Service Association.

Muslim Leader Calls Malcolm X a Traitor

CHICAGO, Feb. 26 (UPI) Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad, guarded by a solid phalanx of karate-trained bodyguards, castigated assassinated black nationalist leader Malcolm X today as an enemy who "got what he preached."

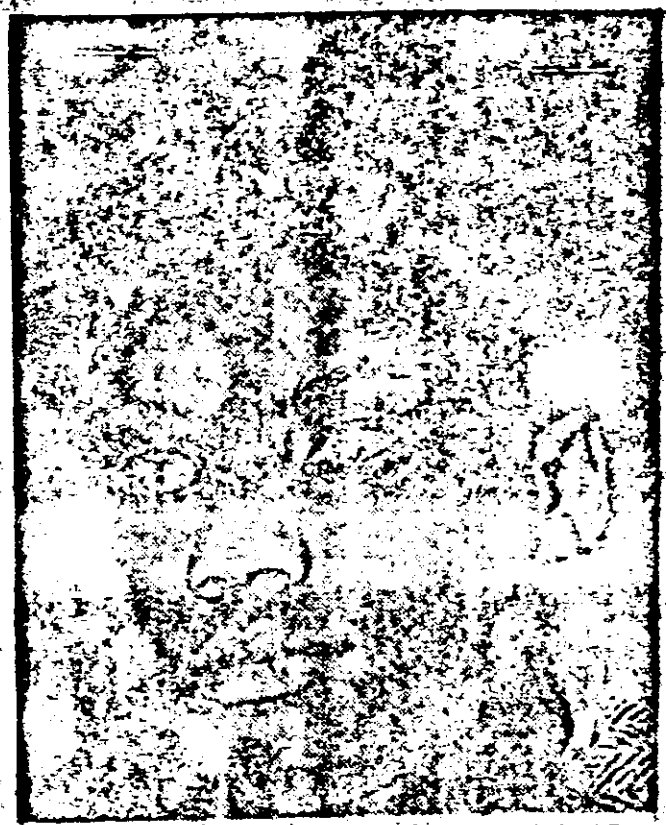

The 67-year-old Muhammad spoke of the days when Malcolm X was second-in-command of the Muslims.

"In those days Malcolm was loved," Muhammad said. "In those days he was a star . . . as long as he was with me. Now, here is a man, his body on the way to the middle of the earth, who would have been here.

"He criticized . . . he criticized . . . he criticized."

But the only uproar at the opening session at the sect's three-day convention came when Muslim Minister Louis X of Baltimore shouted "we have a traitor in our midst," and pointed to Ben Holman, a Negro reporter for the Columbia Broadcasting System who once posed as a Muslim while working for the Chicago Daily News. The crowd roared and Holman was hustled out of the coliseum by guards.

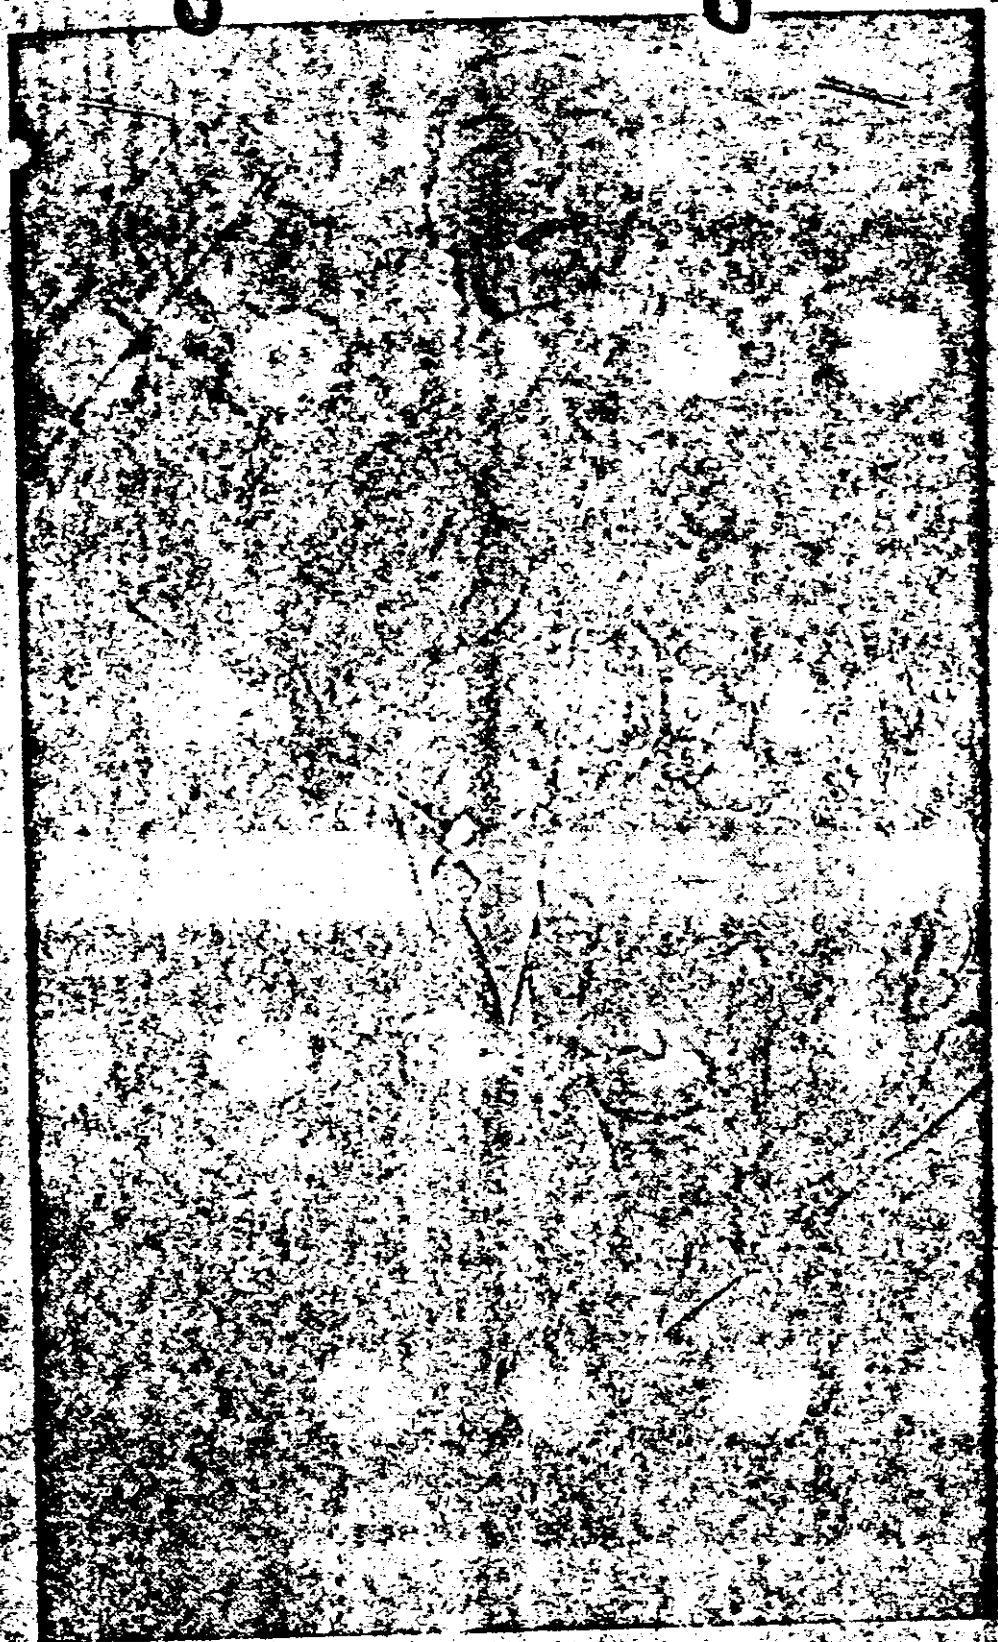

On the platform with Muhammad was heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay.

NATION OF ISLAM,
formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, aka Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam," (NOI) and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the NOI; Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization, which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI)

The March 13, 1964 edition of "The New York Times", a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

The May 23, 1964 edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become soft in his anti-white feelings and to become more religious.

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York), 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion.

A second confidential source advised on October 20, 1964, that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York, where they were established on March 16, 1964. These headquarters are shared with the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) which is also headed by MALCOLM X.

FRUIT OF ISLAM

On May 8, 1964 a source advised that the Fruit of Islam (FOI) is a group within the Nation of Islam (NOI) composed of male members of the NOI. The purpose of the FOI is to protect officials and property of the NOI, assure compliance of members with NOI teachings and to prepare for the "War of Armageddon." Members of the FOI are required to participate in military drill and are afforded the opportunity to engage in judo training. The FOI is governed by a military system wherein the members are controlled by general orders similar to those issued by regular military organizations.

G-Men in Harlem— The Plot Deepens

By DONALD R. FLYNN and MIKE PEARL
Journal-American Staff Writers

Negro FBI agents were working under cover in Harlem today in an investigation reportedly aimed at ferreting out possible international political motives behind the assassination of Malcolm X. OLIVIE

They were especially interested in persistent reports that Malcolm was considering an offer to go to work for Egypt's Gamal Abdel Nasser as head of the African section of Cairo's Foreign Ministry.

The suggestion of foreign involvement also came from James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, that the killing was 'an international plot—a political killing."

Malcolm, who fit into the Arab world both as a Muslim and a Negro, frequented the United Nations though he had no accreditation, and conferred often in the delegates lounge with African and Asian diplomats.

He told friends not long ago that he had been offered the job, for Nasser's United Arab Republic, and had also been approached to work for President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana.

The Ghana job, reportedly, was to be Nkrumah's anti-American speech writer and policy advisor on East-West relations.

One informant said Malcolm X was killed because he was trying to shuck off foreign entanglements, and because he was turning away from the preaching of violent racial revolution to adopt a more moderate position.

CHANGE IN THOUGHT

"It is significant that he was coming into the main stream of Negro thought," said Mr. Farmer yesterday. "That is, anti-segregation, pro-integration.

"Most people are leaping to easy conclusions" that the Black Muslims killed Malcolm, he said.

"The explanation is much deeper, much more sinister. It has international implications.

"Malcolm X knew too much."

But he said he believes the actual killers were dupes, and that "the executioners themselves weren't foreign agents."

Mr. Farmer said he has asked for an investigation by the White House.

"The matter should be taken out of the hands of New York City Police. It should be dealt with by Washington."

HAD NO ORDERS

UN security guards shrugged and said, "we had orders not to challenge him," when asked why Malcolm X had such easy access to the international forum.

For a year prior to his murder, Malcolm could be seen in the lounge, dispensing his message about "America's abuse of the Afro-Americans," and discussing Mississippi, Harlem and other "Negro ghettos."

Added to this was the mystery of how the Muslim renegade, admittedly broke, could travel to Cairo, Ghana and Mecca, afford a bodyguard, dress in well-tailored suits and sport manicured hands.

Significantly, Malcolm preached violent revolution at home, but "brotherhood" and "racial tolerance" abroad.

FBI CONFIRMATION

The Federal Bureau of Investigation confirmed that there are Negro FBI agents in Harlem, but dodged saying anything specific about their assignments.

The police investigation of Malcolm's death, meanwhile, moved rapidly nowhere, as the followers of the slain Muslim leader refused to come forward to give information.

Yet, some 400 were present last Sunday when he was killed in the Audubon Ballroom at 166th st. and Broadway.

Asst. Chief Insp. Joseph L. Coyle, head of Manhattan North Detectives, pointed out that they should cooperate since Malcolm "had a cause and he was a sacrifice for it."

Expect Response

"When the heat is off, we expect some of these people will come forward," he said at the investigation headquarters in the Wadsworth ave. station. "As of now, I don't think they feel secure."

An atmosphere of tense expectancy continued in Harlem and around all Black Muslim mosques in the city—there are two in Queens and another in Brooklyn. All were under police guard.

Bomb threats were numerous, being received at the Unity Funeral Home, 2352 8th ave. and W. 126th st., at the New York Times, and at Malcolm's former headquarters in the Hotel Theresa, 7th ave. and 125th st., where his Organization for Afro-American Unity has its office.

SEARCHES MADE

Police said an anonymous caller warned that Malcolm's office would be bombed last night. No bomb was discovered.

A search of two New York Times plants at 229 W. 43d st. and at West End ave. and 66th st. also turned up nothing. A caller, objecting to an editorial, had declared, "Your plant will be destroyed at 4 o'clock" yesterday.

There was a possibility of more trouble today, as Harlem Rent Strike leader James Gray called for a public, outdoor mass rally at 6 p.m. at 125th st. and 7th ave. in memory of Malcolm.

"It will be peaceful," Gray said, "just as long as police conduct themselves properly."

Another memorial meeting scheduled for last night in the Hotel Theresa was cancelled, allegedly upon police orders. James Haughton, director of the Harlem Unemployment Center, said he was told the meeting could not be held because of "police pressure."

Three men were stopped by police near the funeral home yesterday with rifles in their possession, and one was later booked.

Two of them were picked up outside the funeral home at 5:15, when police spotted a canvas gun case in their possession. Both were questioned at the W. 123d st. station and released.

RIFLE UNDER COAT

But a car washer who identified himself as John F. Gilliard, 56, of 120 W. 124th st., was charged with possessing a dangerous weapon after Transit authority Ptl. John Malchiodi saw him get off a subway train at Lenox ave. and W. 125th st. with a rifle under his coat.

Gilliard had a bullet clip in the sawed-off semi-automatic rifle, and seven more clips in his pocket. He said he belonged to no terrorist groups.

At the offices of the Black Muslim newspaper, "Muhammed Speaks," a block from the charred remains of the Muhammad Temple of Islam No. 7 at 102 W. 116th st., Muslim leader Joseph X insisted again "our hands are clean" in Malcolm X's murder.

DEPLORES REVENGE

The revenge of Malcolm's followers in fire-bombing Mosque No. 7 was thus unjustified, he said.

"The community should be enraged," he added. "The dearest thing to a Muslim is his mosque. The worst thing a man can do is tamper with your religious sanctuary."

And along the streets around 116th st. and Lenox, passersby stared at the lip-encrusted hulk of the mosque, shook their heads, and predicted more violence.

"I would say these cats are going to be scratched until there's not but one of them left," one man said.

And the angry, anonymous callers vowing new vengeance seemed to bear out the fear that the agonies of the Black Nationalists in Harlem are not over.

Mrs. Betty Shabazz, widow of the slain Malcolm X, bows her head in quiet as, supported by two unidentified men, she enters the Unity Funeral Home, 2342 Eighth ave., to view the body.

MALCOLM K. LITTLE

[redacted] had a discussion with a close friend [redacted] in which they reviewed all their acquaintances in the Greater Boston area looking for someone capable of leading a Boston branch of the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) They could think of no one suitable, aside from [redacted] Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 11.

They discarded the idea of attempting to interest [redacted] since they feel he would be unwilling to leave his present position with the NOI because he is financially secure where he is. [redacted] was considered because of the fact that he was very close to Malcom K. Little and it is reported that [redacted] was very upset at the death of Little.

[redacted] would never participate in the actual slaying of Little.

[redacted] little likelihood of a branch of the OAAU starting in Boston because [redacted] can find no suitable leader and although there are black nationalists in the Boston area, none of them are militant and so would not follow Malcolm X.

The OAAU is characterized in the appendix hereto. [redacted] by black nationalists [redacted] Negroes who are sincerely interested in working for the improvement of the Negro race, from the standpoint of Civil Rights, Culture, Education and Economic Well Being.

[redacted] Malcolm Little never considered who might succeed him as a leader if anything happened to him. Even though Little believed that his life was in danger, he seemed to be convinced that nothing would happen. Malcolm had stated to friends that when he left the NOI he was penniless. He made enough money on magazine articles and television appearances to keep himself going, but he said that he had to leave the country to try to establish some permanent source of income for himself. He contacted the heads of the legitimate Moslem religion and, at their request, made the required pilgrimage to Mecca. They arranged to have a religious leader sent to New York City to teach and perform the religious rights of the Moslem religion. This leader was to reside with Malcolm Little, for which Little would be reimbursed the sum of $500 a month.

Malcolm was also given a position as some sort of a representative of the Moslem religion with a regular salary. Malcolm never elaborated on the position or the amount of the salary. He stated he received 20 scholarships which were to be given to whomever he chose. These were all-expenses paid type of scholarship and included the expenses of any family of the recipient of the scholarship.

MUHAMMAD'S TEMPLE OF ISLAM NO. 11, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, ALSO REFERRED TO AS THE NATION OF ISLAM (NOI)

On March 18, 1954, a source stated that the Nation of Islam (NOI) had become active in Boston, Massachusetts, and knew that it had held meetings as early as November, 1953.

On May 11, 1964, a second source stated that the Temple of Islam in Boston, Massachusetts, is known as Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 11 or Muhammad's Mosque No. 11. It is located at 35 Intervale Street, Dorchester (Boston), Massachusetts, and is the local branch of Muhammad's Temple of Islam whose headquarters are in Chicago, Illinois.

APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam," (NOI) and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the NOI; Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam (Cont.)

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised Muhammad had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

APPENDIX

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.
